American Payeble Demonstrato Gets Ball in England.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—Mme. Elmira Brockway of Chicago, known as a psychic demonstrator and who was arrested in London a few days ago charged with fortune telling, was released from the Brixton prison to-day. Ball was furnished by members of the British College of Psychic Science. They also engaged counsel to defend her and on application the hearing was adjourned for one week.

Mme. Brockway was taken into custody by the police of London, where recently a general roundup of persons found telling fortunes has been made. She is 60 years old and has independent means. A son is a captain in the Prench army and has charge of all the ambulances of the American Red Cross on the western front. Robert P. Skinner, the American Consul-General, has interested himself in the case of Mme. Brockway at the request of many prominent English psychic demonstrators.
